In an effort to meet the needs of our distribution system operators, the North Carolina Rural Water Association (NCRWA) presents a one-day per week, three week C-Distribution Water School combined with a one day shoring school. This school is designed to prepare operators for the C-Distribution Water certification examination.

This school is limited to 24 participants and a fee of $275.00 will be required to attend. Registrations received after September 8, 2010 will incur a $25.00 late fee. Attendees will need to bring pen and paper to the first session. Further supply requirements will be given on the first day.

This NCRWA C-Distribution Water School and Shoring School has been approved by the NCWTFOCB to meet the regulatory requirements necessary to be eligible for the C-Distribution Certification Examination.

Certificates of Attendance will be provided by mail upon successful completion of the required curriculum
