In an effort to meet the needs of our well system operators, the North Carolina Rural Water Association (NCRWA) presents a one-day per week, five week C-Well Water School. This school is designed to prepare operators for the C-Well water certification examination.

This school is limited to 18 participants and a fee of $275.00 will be required to attend. Registrations received after July 23, 2010 will incur a $25.00 late fee. Attendees will need to bring pen and paper to the first session. Further supply requirements will be given on the first day.

This NCRWA C-Well Water School has been approved by the NCWTFOCB to meet the regulatory requirements necessary to be eligible for the C-Well Certification Examination.

*Certificates of Attendance will be provided by mail upon successful completion of the required curriculum ****
