

2004 Deep South Lacrosse All-Conference Team Announced

April 21, 2004

ROCK HILL, SC – Limestone College senior defender Clint Pitts, who helped the Saints to an undefeated season and was the leader of a defense that allowed just 6.1 goals per game, was named the Deep South Conference Player of the Year, the league announced today.

Clint Pitts

Pitts was one of seven Saints to make First or Second Team All-Conference.

Mars Hill College first-year coach Brian Anken, who guided the Lions to a tie for sixth-place in the conference standings, was named Coach of the Year.

Mars Hill attack man Andrew Chapman, who led the league in goals per game at 3.82, was named Freshman of the Year.

The award winners will be recognized between games at the tournament semifinals Friday at Catawba College in Salisbury, NC.

Joining Pitts on the First Team All-Conference squad were David Wooster and Nolan Heavenor at attack; Nick DeLonga and Bobby Woody at midfield; and Nick Kobekof on defense. Chris Barret at midfield was a Second Team choice.

St. Andrews, which finished in second place in the league standings, placed five on the All-Conference squad, including midfielder Kyle Weiher on the First Team. Catawba College had four representatives, including David Dunnick on the First Team. Wingate, Pfeiffer and Mars Hill each placed two representatives on the squads.

The Deep South Conference Tournament semifinals will be played Friday at Catawba College in Salisbury, N.C. In the first game, top-seed Limestone will face fourth-seed Pfeiffer at 1 p.m. In the other match, second-seed St. Andrews will face third seed Catawba at 4 p.m. The all-conference team and award winners will be recognized between games.

The Deep South Conference Tournament finals will be Sunday at 2 p.m. at Catawba College.
